RESTORE OMAHA CONFERENCE WILL INVIGORATE OWNERS OF OLDER PROPERTIES

The fifth annual Restore Omaha Conference is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, March 5 and 6, 2010. The Conference provides a wide-range of learning opportunities to promote the practice of historic restoration to the public and professionals. Focus of the conference is mid-twentieth century and older homes and business properties.

There are several exciting experiences planned for this year's conference. On Friday, March 5, the Conference opening reception will be held at Frank's Pieces of the Past at 814 S. 14th St. Owner Frank Horejs has been an architectural salvager since the 1980's and has a remarkable warehouse of historic salvage that represents Omaha's past. Plan to swap experiences with conference speakers and participants.

On Saturday, March 6, conference keynote and learning sessions are scheduled from 9:00 am – 4:00 pm at Metropolitan Community College, South Omaha Campus, Industrial Training Center. Concurrent sessions are scheduled on a variety of topics: Stained Glass Restoration; Restoration of a Commercial Building; Historic Gardening; Window Reglazing and Wood Consolidation; Selecting, Bidding and Hiring a Contractor; History of Omaha's Historic Apartments; The Economic Power of Restoration; Omaha's Electrical Codes and many more.

This year's conference also features keynoter, Donovan Rypkema, principal of PlaceEconomics, a Washington, D.C.-based real estate and economic development consulting firm. Rypkema specializes in commercial revitalization and its effects on the surrounding neighborhoods. The City of Omaha, Destination Midtown, and the South Omaha Development Project all have neighborhood commercial district revitalization on their near-term agendas.

Vendors who specialize in restoration and preservation will also be available.

For more conference and registration information, go to www.restoreomaha.com.

Inaugural Social Impact Forum Omaha Promises To Engage, Empower, & Energize

The first annual Social Impact Forum Omaha will be held on Friday, Feb. 26, at Creighton University’s Harper Center. This action-oriented conference will engage, empower and energize hundreds of local leaders and change makers to address the increasingly complex and connected challenges facing our community. “Our world can seem complicated and the deeper meaning in everyday life appears to be elusive for many. Social Impact Forum Omaha (SIFO) is geared towards those people who choose to see the world as an opportunity to make the world a better place in multiple different avenues and from many different angles,” said Taylor Keen, a forum co-chair and instructor in the Social Entrepreneurship Program at Creighton University’s College of Business.

The theme of the inaugural conference is “Challenge Yourself. Change Your World.” A series of breakout sessions and keynote speakers will:

- Educate attendees about social enterprise and how entrepreneurial principles can affect social change,
- Provide best practices, innovative strategies, tools and information to support current social entrepreneurs,
- Inspire new social entrepreneurs and programs/projects,
- Bring people together to network, find partnership opportunities and develop support systems.

The cost to attend the forum is $50 or $35 for nonprofit attendees and $20 for students. Session topics include: Creating a Culture of Prosperity, Moving the Mind:How the Arts and Culture Change the Community, Thinking Globally, Eating Locally: Effecting Change One Bite at A Time, and Empowering Youth Organizations Leading the Charge. Speakers include: Stephen Vogel, chief executive officer of Grameen America, and John Birge, a principal at RDG Planning & Design. To register online or view the complete forum schedule, visit www.socialimpactomaha.org.

Event sponsors include: Federal Reserve Bank, Creighton University, Executives without Borders, JM Web Design, Mutual of Omaha, American National Bank, Kent Bellows Foundation and RDG Planning & Design. For more information about the event or sponsorship opportunities, contact Taylor Keen, SIFO Co-chair, at (402) 960-5689.

PKA Fraternity - Thanks For Your Help!

The GPNA wishes to thank the Pi Kappa Alpha (PKA) Fraternity of Creighton University for their past and current community service efforts and great help to the Gifford Park neighborhood. The PKA Fraternity has been involved in many community projects with the GPNA for more than fifteen years. They have helped with projects and events such as our annual spring and fall neighborhood cleanups, street and park cleanups, the annual Easter Egg Hunt, community garden, neighborhood watch walks, youth baseball, attended GPNA meetings and others.

The PKA Fraternity’s biggest project has been hosting the annual Halloween Haunted House for neighborhood kids - their efforts to put on a fun, safe event for neighborhood children has been a big success each of the last fifteen years.

The above neighborhood projects and events would not be as successful without the PKA’s involvement. The PKA Fraternity partnership with the GPNA creates a sense of community which strengthens our neighborhood. We look forward to working with the PKA Fraternity on these and other future projects.

Omaha Property Protection Home Inventory provides a valuable, bonded service for both you and your Insurance Agent. Everyone agrees that we should all have a documented inventory of our personal property in the event of a loss or claim, but less than 20% of homeowners have one. We will provide this beneficial service, so that at the time of a loss or claim, you will be prepared.

Our service includes Video-Digital-Cataloging of the entire home and its contents, to include serial and model numbers. This is provided to you in a professional inventory packet that will provide all the information you will need at the time of loss. Your information will be entered into an inventory software program to be given to you and will not degrade or be destroyed over time.

This service will assist area Law Enforcement with the recovery of your property and/or the arrest of the suspect.

Please visit our website, or give us a call and we'll answer any questions you may have.

We also offer Off-Duty Certified Police Officers for a variety of needs such as (surveillance, executive protection, etc).

2009 GPNA Holiday Banquet Highlights

Nearly 125 GPNA members, family, and guests attended our 21st Annual Holiday Banquet. Those in attendance enjoyed an evening of good food, camaraderie among neighbors, and holiday cheer at Creighton University Medical Center in the Becic Dining Room. Tremendous thanks are extended to everyone who pitched in, from sending out invitations to clean-up, and made this yet another in our list of successful events!

Emcee and GPNA president Dana Carlton-Flint kept the event lively and cheerful. Dana and vice-president Stuart Shell presented an entertaining slideshow tour of last year's events and activities. The 2009 Events & Activities Slideshow ran during the first half of the evening – thanks Sallie Foster for taking a year's worth of wonderful, award-winning pictures. Incoming Community Garden Director Diane Kaye presented outgoing director (and current Youth Garden Director) Dana Freeman with a special garden gift. Senator Gwen Howard expressed appreciation for the hard work of the GPNA, and PKA Fraternity's Connor O'Neil said a few words about the PKA-GPNA partnership. Thanks to Ben Spahn for taking pictures.

Rodney Hay's time and culinary expertise in preparing turkey was much appreciated. Rodney, as most of you know, bakes, smokes, and deep-fries the turkeys for us every year. Sodexo made it complete with a buffet of traditional holiday fare, including pumpkin pie for dessert! Dana Carlton-Flint hand-crafted the table centerpieces. We again offer our sincere appreciation to Creighton University Medical Center for their enormous support by hosting this event.

Chris Foster introduced "Neighbor of the Year," Darryl Hutton. It was nice to hear Darryl's comments as he reflected on his volunteer experiences and thanked friends he has volunteered with. He has been involved with many events and activities of the GPNA since the 1990's. The night was brought to a close by drawing of door prizes and distribution of children's gifts all donated by members and VIP's – Senator Gwen Howard, Councilman Chris Jerram, Lois Baumhover, Subby & Janice Anzaldo, Brad Bogard, Lilly Estes, Dana Carlton-Flint & "Design With You In Mind," Stuart Shell & Dana Freeman, and Mike Caban. Those attending the banquet may recall there were two girls named "Emma" present at the banquet, so in the drawing of names for the sled (donated by Mike Caban) "Emma" was called for the one sled. In typical GPNA fashion, Jared Schultz without hesitation decided he would find

Growing Season Draws Near At Gifford Park Community Garden

On the midpoint of winter—February 2—Punxsutawney Phil saw his shadow, and if we rely upon a marmot to predict spring's weather, we can expect six more weeks of cold. I'm sure most Nebraskans, if asked, would have given a similar forecast, since more than three feet of the white stuff has fallen since last October and much of it lingers in the piles we've shoveled off our walks and driveways. Needless to say, we're all counting down the days until spring officially begins on Saturday, March 20. The gardeners among us while away what remains of winter by poring over the innumerable seed catalogs arriving daily in the mail and anticipating the last frost of the season, a date averaging somewhere between April 30th and May 10th for our hardiness zone.

If you can't wait to get your hands in the dirt, consider joining your neighbors at Gifford Park Community Garden (GPCG) near 35th & Cass Streets this growing season. The garden is a wonderful setting to meet others in your community while working and learning together, a benefit in addition to enriching your diet with healthy, locally grown produce. There aren't many available spaces, so make haste when contacting Membership Chair Mike Caban with your interest (402.341.4722 or caban3321@cox.net). Plot applications will be distributed March 15th and must be returned with all required fees by April 15th. Whether you garden in the neighborhood or not, mark your calendars for our Season Opening on Saturday, May 8. It's a free and fun event open to everyone as a way to kick-off another great year growing in Gifford Park. More information on this and our Youth Garden program in upcoming newsletters.

Your financial and in-kind contributions supplement the garden's income from plot rental fees and ensure that GPCG and its programs are able to continue functioning at the same exceptional level. GPCG has created a "wish list" of items that would be useful to have but cannot be purchased due to budgetary constraints. Contact Dana (402-850-9611 or dana.freeman@gmail.com) if you have something you would like to share with us.

President's Column

Grants and Donations are what it takes!

It is that time of year again and our board is looking forward to what it takes to sustain the projects and programs that Gifford Park elects to hold and/or participate in throughout the year. Many of the projects are helped along by the generosity of our members who donate above and beyond their membership dues each year. Our business members continue to give each year so that we can beautify the business district with flowering planters, add holiday lighting to the park, and even send a gift basket representing Gifford Park to the Mid-Town Neighborhood Alliance silent auction. Donations from our general membership have assisted the GPNA in getting matching grants for Spring Clean-up supplies, candy and toys for the Easter Egg Hunt, Ice Cream for the Music in the Park, and memberships with supporting organizations such as the Mid-Town Neighborhood Alliance and the Nebraska State Arboretum. Grants from our Mayor have added benches to the Park, a roof on the shelter, and a water hookup in the north part of our park. Additional grants from the Peter Kewit Foundation and Mutual of Omaha Foundation have allowed us to expand our community garden, continue the Children's Garden Program and install safety lighting throughout our neighborhood. As you see it definitely takes a Village (Friends, Neighborhood, and City) to make our neighborhood outstanding! So when you send in your membership this year think about sending a little extra so that we can continue to keep our existing projects going and expand programs to make Gifford Park even better.

by Dana Carlton-Flint

P.S. Two grants have been written already in 2010 by our newest board member Chris Hupp. If received, these grants will add more safety lighting, permanent signage in the Community Garden, sustain the Children's garden program and provide materials and supplies to the Community Garden.

Darryl Hutton - 2009 GPNA Neighbor Of The Year

The GPNA was proud to honor Darryl Hutton as our 2009 Neighbor of the Year. He was recognized at our 21st annual GPNA Holiday Banquet hosted again by Creighton University Medical Center on December 10. The GPNA Board actually tried to keep the award a surprise from Darryl but he is too well known in the neighborhood for this to work. Darryl has been involved with many GPNA events and activities for many years, and he is extremely valuable to the neighborhood because he is a "jack-of-all-trades", and helps local businesses with handyman projects. Darryl's self-sacrifice for our neighborhood goes without saying. Darryl joins his father Bob who received the "Neighbor of the Year" award several years back.

Darryl has lived in the Gifford Park neighborhood most of his life. He attended grade school at Yates School, then Lewis & Clark Junior High School, and graduated from Central High School. Besides his handyman skills, other hobbies and talents include tree-trimming, house painting, drywalling, computers, frisbee and darts.

Darryl's involvement and leadership in neighborhood events and activities is quite impressive and includes Easter egg hunts, National Night Out Block Party, GPNA Holiday Banquet, community garden, neighborhood and park cleanups, painting over graffiti, business district flower pots, Music in the Park, Show Wagon, and others. His work with the Alcohol Impact Coalition (AIC) is very valuable to our neighborhood as well as other similar parts of our city facing problems related to high alcohol outlet density. Darryl has volunteered countless hours helping the Community Bike Shop. He helped coordinate significant funds for additional lighting in Gifford Park and other neighborhood streets. Darryl knows the pulse of the neighborhood as well as anyone, his efforts help make our neighborhood safer.

Darryl helps people when needed. He's dependable, has a can-do attitude, and self-sacrifice to make our neighborhood a better place. A perfect example of Darryl's can-do spirit was the day of the Holiday Banquet when he helped haul items and setup for the banquet...this after helping to fix a furnace at California Tacos earlier that afternoon. Congratulations, from all of us in the Gifford Park neighborhood!

What's Happening In the Neighborhood . . .

Check out the GPNA website – Newsletter Archive section. A BIG THANKS to Ron Abdouch and his staff at the Neighborhood Center for scanning roughly 150+ GPNA newsletters, and our GPNA webmaster Dan Bodmann for organizing and uploading the PDF files to our website. We now have nearly ALL newsletters from the first one in 1989. As an expression of our gratitude, Dan loaded up a link to the Neighborhood Center on our GPNA home page in our "Featured Local Websites" section.

The GPNA offers our sincerest condolences to longtime GPNA member and resident Jim Horton and his family for the loss of Jim's wife Vera. Sadly in December Vera passed away after being ill. Vera along with Jim and daughter Bonnie have always been great volunteers and supporters of the GPNA. Just this past September Jim & Vera once again let us use their home's water and electricity for a wedding in Gifford Park. Vera was very involved with Yates School for many years, and was always hoping Yates would return to a neighborhood school again... the GPNA will keep working to make this happen.

Welcome to our newest and youngest GPNA Board member (at large) Chris Hupp. Chris just graduated from Creighton University with a degree in Interpersonal Communications with a minor in Business Administration. He is currently working at the Cardiac Center, and lives near 33rd & California. He is very active with our community garden and is currently involved with writing grants for our neighborhood. He has been attending neighborhood association meetings and brings new ideas and perspective to the GPNA. Welcome Chris!

Please keep longtime GPNA member and former president Ron Yates in your thought and prayers. Ron has been ill lately and in a tough battle. Most of you know Ron was one of the GPNA's founding fathers. Hang in there, Ron!
