New Tools for New Challenges (Home Sales & Increased Development)

By: Andy Wessel

Over the past few years, the GPNA Board has been wrestling with how to address some of the mixed blessings that come from Gifford Park (and Midtown in general) being seen more and more as a place worth investing in. We're now working on two tools that we think will help. The first is using Nextdoor to help people who want to buy a home to live in Gifford Park. The second is creating what we're calling a "code of conduct" to help real estate developers (and property managers too) understand how they can be a good neighbor.

Here's a little background on why we're taking these steps. For home sales, more and more we've been hearing stories about people (including some Board members) who have been looking to buy a home in Gifford Park because they love the neighborhood and want to live here, but they've been unable to do so because investors keep buying the properties as soon as they go on the market. As a neighborhood association, we want Gifford Park to be a place where families who want to live in the neighborhood can find a way to buy a home here.

If you are considering selling your home (or you know someone else who is), please use Nextdoor Gifford Park to connect with people who want to live in Gifford Park before putting it on the market.

On the code of conduct side, the Board has frequently been involved with trying to ensure that new real estate development projects are compatible with our neighborhood. Unfortunately, this is often done on an ad hoc basis. What we're proposing is to develop written guidelines to help developers understand the identity and values of this Gifford Park. Our goal is to be less reactive to new development and instead have

From the President

What makes a neighborhood great? Some criteria that define a great neighborhood are: its walkability, its access to public transportation, shopping and entertainment, the quality of its schools, its outdoor activities, and its low crime rate.

But there is something else that makes a neighborhood great. It is the sense of community: when people care about their neighborhood, when they organize and participate in activities that bring neighbors together. And Gifford Park Neighborhood is known for its sense of community: look at all the activities we organize, especially during the summer. Well, have you ever thought about what it takes to organize all these activities? I hadn't really... until a couple of weeks ago, when I answered a survey about neighborhoods. I was asked to describe the activities we organize, and the time we dedicate to each of them. That means I had to calculate how many people volunteer how many hours for each activity (and I probably forgot to mention some of them)... And guess what? The total came to several thousand volunteer hours each year! Yes, several thousand hours are invested each year in our neighborhood to make it such a great place to live! This is the real meaning of the sense of community, when people take ownership of their neighborhood, when they dedicate time to make it a better place to live, when they gather and discuss and share ideas about their vision of the neighborhood. So... THANK YOU wholeheartedly for all you do for our neighborhood each year!
Happy reading!

Youth Garden Starting Soon

The Gifford Park Youth Garden (GPYG) program will be kicking off its 14th year at the Gifford Park Community Garden (35th & Cass) growing young gardeners. The 2017 program will be each Saturday morning from 10:00 to 11:30am May 20 through August 26. Attached in this newsletter you will find the schedule and registration information on page 14 and 15. We will be accepting registrations at our Community Garden & Adventure Playground Season Opening Saturday May 13, 10am to Noon at the community garden. This free program teaches youth of all ages how to grow our vegetables, prepare, eat, and share our harvest with others. Plus, we'll be creative with art & music; explore our natural environment; and have fun while working together and getting our hands dirty. GPYG relies upon parents and volunteers each week to provide snacks, lead lessons, and simply share their time with participating young people. Please contact Chris Foster (402-290-8187 or foster3413@cox.net) or Mike Caban (402-341-4722, caban3321@cox.net) if you have any questions about GPYG program or the community garden in general.

Adventure Playground Update

By Jasmine Frierson

I am so excited for the next season of Adventure Playground and you should be too! Not only am I excited to see familiar faces but also to make new friends in our community. This year will be special because we have some major projects in the works.

When the adventure playground opened, we asked the kids "What would you like to do with this space? How would you like to make it your own?" At the top of the list was a treehouse. I'd say we accomplished that one quite beautifully. Next on the list: a zipline! Once again with the professional help of Francisco Jimenez Crisostomo and his crew, we plan to set up a zipline that is thrilling and safe. Matt Cronin will be donating his time and effort to build a xylophone that is larger than life. There will also be a movie night in June featuring "The Goonies".

So come join us for the Youth Garden and Adventure Playground season opening on May 13 from 10-12pm. The playground will be staffed every Saturday from noon-4pm through October beginning May 20th. We would like to extend those hours to other days but volunteers are needed. Volunteers are there to keep the area free of hazards, lend out tools/materials and most importantly, play and engage with the kids. If you are interested or have questions, you can contact us via email at sfadventureplayground@gmail.com.

Yates Education Community Partnership (ECP) Update

By Susan Mayberger

The programming at Yates ECP programming continues to meet the needs of our newly arriving families and our youngest children. During the 2016-17 school year, Yates provided conversational English classes and parenting classes to over 600 parents. Classes are offered every day that the Omaha Public Schools' elementary schools are in session. Classes are from 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. One of the most popular classes are for migrant and refugee parents with young children. Sometimes, there are more 40 moms and their children learning their ABCs and 1-2-3 in English. The families are from Burma, Bhutan, Nepal, the Congo, Syria, Somalia, Mexico and other countries. Learning English is critical for our newly arriving families that live in our neighborhood.

On Tuesdays and Thursdays, sewing classes are provided. The parents have learned to sew hats, gloves and scarves to give the newly arriving families. There are cultural orientation classes on Fridays. On Saturdays, students from Creighton University are providing free citizenship classes at Yates.

In addition to the programs for immigrants and refugees, there are four classes for Early Childhood. Their end of the year program will be on Friday, May 26th at 2:30 p.m. All of the Gifford Park Neighborhood is invited to wish our 4 year olds well as they move on to kindergarten in the new school year.

If you have any questions regarding the programming, a desire to volunteer, or host an event at Yates, please contact Susan Mayberger at susan.mayberger@ops.org or Veronica Hill at veronica.hill@ops.org.

A Nebraska Ghost Musical

Susan made a deal with her husband: Once her first book is done, they'll start a family. As the ink dries on the final page, the couple heads to Red Cloud, NE, hoping to begin a simpler life, but a slew of mysterious guests prove that there's nothing simple about small town living. Dreams shatter, plans change, and the trajectory of Susan's future takes new shape in the looming shadow of American novelist, Willa Cather. 28th Annual Easter Egg Hunt Highlights

We received a much-needed break in the weather just in time for our 28th Annual Easter Egg Hunt, held Saturday, April 15 in Gifford Park. We estimated about 275 anxious neighborhood children participated. This was the ninth year in a row an anonymous dentist donated dental care bags for all the children. Volunteers picked up litter and in the park before putting out candy, treats, and other prizes in the grass. As traditional, we had four age groups: 0-4, 5-6, 7-9, and 10-12 year-olds. There were many volunteers and donors who helped put forth extra effort – once again Darryl Hutton did a great job getting donations from a variety of people and businesses; Jan Franks, her grandchildren Brittany Rubek, and great granddaughter Arianna, organized the candy. The Slayden family (Betty, Tiffaney, Kayleen, and their families) were tremendous help as always. Justine Stanley did another wonderful job as our charismatic Easter bunny giving out treats to youngsters, and she was joined by her sisters Dawn, Crystal, Witney, Rachel and brother Wendell Junior. In keeping with tradition Senator Sara Howard and her mom Gwen came again and donated cute stuffed bunnies. Many thanks to all those who donated time, money, candy, and other items for the event: Fremont Machine, Whelan Law Office, Kilgore Law Office, Discount Laundry, Urban Village, California Tacos, California Bar, KNJ Grocery, Selenas Market, Ideal Hardware, Paul Mileris, Bob & Virginia Hutton, Jim Kyler, Terry & Sue Wilwerding, Jessyka Sheldon, Adrian Petrescu & Marie Hélène Andre, Mike Caban, Ellen Price, Jim Wilwerding, Paul Pellerito & family, Curtis Flint, Matt Cronin, Eliza Perry, Nancy Gaarder, Jackie Foster, Chris Foster, and the Gifford Park Neighborhood Association. Please support the above businesses for their contributions. I'd like to give special thanks to Jim Kyler for volunteering his truck (and himself) since my yellow pickup truck was (and still is) in the repair shop. And finally, special recognition to our Easter bunny Justine Stanley for once again coming early and staying late to delight the kids – Justine's enthusiasm for a tough job (it gets hot in that suit!) is outstanding!

believe and we will defend what we know is right, from trees over parking lots to a safe and walking friendly neighborhood, and even to organizing help to take the dirt hill away from over the children's park that rests underneath, left behind by higher ups from Lincoln to Washington D.C.

We are happy to have helped Gifford Park neighborhood become an attraction point to young new neighbors coming here from everywhere because they love it here. We are happy to dream on at what will we build together next to help our community become even stronger and to make our neighborhood even more enjoyable.

What do you dream about?

Let us all keep dreaming big and bigger. Let us imagine what else can we build anew every day of every month of every year, towards a bold vision of community. Let's keep working together even harder, staying inspired by our national neighbors who so graciously chose to visit and to teach us new things and to help us celebrate our modest successes. As we wrote before, there are some 90,000 local government organizations in these United States, all constituting the strength of our mutual innovation and creativity in community building and strengthening. This is a force of ideas and dreams to come true through perseverance that everybody must reckon with. After all, we are whom we helped achieve their fullest potential. Let's keep our can do spirit, amplify our optimism and perseverance, and keep our focus and our attention on the nurturing of our youth. We shall see how far we can dream and how far we will get in the next 16 years. How far we will help bring Omaha and Nebraska in the next 150 years. Neighbors of America, let's all dream on. And let's all make those great bold dreams of community come true.

5-year Operation Playground Celebration

On Saturday April 15 (immediately following the Easter Egg Hunt) the Gifford Park neighborhood celebrated the 5-year anniversary of our playground equipment because of the great efforts of the Operation Playground project lead by Maria Devlin. It was our (the Gifford Park Neighborhood Association) privilege to honor Maria and her family at the playground for their tremendous efforts!

A bit of history, back in about 2010, a group of Creighton University Occupational Therapy (OT) students came to the Gifford Park Neighborhood Association to see if they could do something that would impact the neighborhood. As students in the College of Pharmacy and Health Professions, the health of people in the community, especially children, was important to them. Maria lead the group in its efforts to raise over $50,000 from special fundraising dinners, on-campus events, local foundations and in-kind donations.

Since the playground equipment installation 5 years ago, Maria's family meet back to Omaha each spring and fall to organize a playground & park cleanup celebration (complete with healthy food for volunteers!). Maria and husband Rory live in Denver, CO and Maria's parents George & Patty Doyle live in Columbus, OH. The Gifford Park neighborhood is sincerely grateful for Maria and her family's dedication, commitment and special relationship with our Gifford Park neighborhood! What a wonderful occasion to bring the neighborhood together!

FYI – The GPNA is nominating Maria Devlin for Creighton's Young Alumni Achievement Award, she is very deserving of this prestigious honor, we will let you know if she receives the award.

The Legend that is Whistle Pig

This brave creature that cohabitates in our neighborhood is often seen at the Community Garden compost pile. There he enjoys the company of his fellow neighbors, the chicken flock. Other times, Whistle Pig is seen 'whistling' across one of the busiest streets in the Gifford Park Neighborhood, California Street. He sure knows how to hustle. Sometimes groundhogs are accustomed to messing up gardens, but Gifford Park's Whistle Pig keeps to his own. To honor this friendly creature, neighborhood artist Maranda Allbritten created a beautiful stamp for t-shirts and hats, available at the neighborhood market (pictured right). If you see him around the neighborhood, you can ask this legendary figure if the upcoming season will be early or later this year.

The Collaborative Spirit

By Brent Lubbert

Neighborhoods find greater strength and resiliency when its members and organizations work together in collaboration. Thanks to the many active neighbors in The Gifford Park Neighborhood, who have worked together throughout the years, the neighborhood's culture flourishes with a collaborative spirit. One example of this spirit is the Full Cycle Supper, a collaborative fundraiser hosted by Big Muddy Urban Farm and Community Bike Project Omaha.

The Full Cycle Supper is a progressive five-course, farm fresh meal. The meal consists of riding your bike to the various Big Muddy Urban Farm plots enjoying a unique course at each plot. The 3-mile bike ride will take place on Sunday, June 25th at 5 p.m. Talented local chefs from the area will prepare the courses to feature ingredients grown where their course is served.

The ride will start with the first course at Big Muddy's 33rd and California St. plot. Tickets are $45 for the meal and tour assistance. Funds raised from the Full Cycle Supper will go to support the neighborhood-based, community-building work of The Community Bike Project Omaha and Big Muddy Urban Farm, and further the neighborhood's culture of collaboratively supporting each other.

The Full Cycle Supper is limited to 30 riders. Riders are asked to bring their own well-adjusted bike and water bottle. To purchase tickets and to find out more, look for the event on Facebook.

Bike Shop Update

By Adam Blowers

Omari, Brayan, and Miguel were our first 3 Youth Earn-a-Bike graduates of 2017! Each earned a bicycle, lock, and a helmet and learned valuable skills along the way. Youth Earn-a-Bike and Kids Bike club are in full swing as is everything else in the shop, located at 525 N 33rd Street.

A couple of our awesome volunteers have organized a weekly distance ride series that is designed to help beginners build up to riding longer distances and get them comfortable riding in groups. If you've ever wanted to ride some of the summer charity rides but are worried if you can keep up or not, then these rides are for you. They are no drop casual rides. The first one has already happened and was 10 miles, but the next ride is Saturday May 13th at 9 a.m. and the rest will happen every Saturday after. Meet at the shop by 8:45am and leave at 9am.

These rides are designed to build up to our next big event which is Lids for Kids. Lids for Kids will be on June 4th this year. Lids for Kids is our annual fundraising ride for Earn-a-Bike. There will be a 25 mile route and a 50 mile route with slow and fast versions of each so everyone can ride a pace that suits them. This ride will be supported and there will be snack and water stops along the way. All proceeds from Lids for Kids go to support our Earn-a-Bike program so that we can continue to provide helmets and locks to all of our graduates.
